

Parent Questionnaire March 2018

Dear parents /carers,

At the start of the year, I am asking you to share your views of our school. We strive to provide the best education for your child but always value your opinions on how we can get better. Please take a few minutes to answer the following questions. Your comments and opinions can then be incorporated into the future developments for the school.

If you wish to complete this at home please return to school by Monday 2nd October

Many thanks for your support.
